insects, rodents, or snakes, or materials which generate obnoxious odors, or which offend the aesthetics of the community and, thereby, cause a substantial diminution in the value of other property or which threaten the health or safety of any citizen.

6. Any person violating this ordinance shall be fined an amount not to exceed One Hundred Fifty and No/100 Dollars ($150.00) for each calendar day the violation continues, however, the total fine shall not exceed Five Thousand and No/100 Dollars ($5,000.00), and, in addition thereto, shall be taxed with administrative fees which shall not exceed the actual cost of the implementation and enforcement of this ordinance.

7. The County Administrator, or his designee, is hereby authorized and empowered by the Madison County Commission to determine if a person is in violation of this ordinance. If the County Administrator, or his designee, shall determine a person to be in violation of this ordinance, the County Administrator shall issue a written citation to the person describing the basis for the determination that the ordinance has been violated, which notice shall be served upon the person by personal delivery to the person or by mailing the citation to the person by certified mail, return receipt requested, or by attaching a copy of the citation to the front door of a dwelling upon the parcel of land or by leaving a copy of the citation with a person who is nineteen (19) years or older at a dwelling upon the parcel of land. If the ordinance has been violated, the owner and the lessee, if any, and the person in possession or control of the parcel of land are all in violation of the ordinance and all shall be served with a citation.

8. The person to whom any such citation is directed shall have thirty (30) calendar days from service of the citation as described above to bring the parcel of land into compliance with the provisions of this ordinance. If the person fails or refuses to bring the parcel of land into compliance with the provision of this ordinance within the said thirty (30) days, the County Administrator, or his designee, shall determine the amount of the fine for violation of this ordinance and the amount of the administrative fee, and shall notify the person of the amount of the fine and administrative fee by one of the methods of notification set out in paragraph 7 above.

9. Any person issued a citation for violation of this ordinance may appeal to the Madison County Commission to contest such citation for an alleged violation of this ordinance. Any person desiring to so appeal to the Madison County Commission must, within ten (10) calendar days of receipt of the citation file a written notice of appeal with the Madison County Commission at the offices of the Madison County Commission on the seventh floor of the Madison County Courthouse and pay a One Hundred and No/100 Dollar ($100.00) administrative fee. If a notice of appeal and the administrative fee is mailed to the Madison County Commission, the date the notice of appeal and payment of the fee are received by the Madison County Commission is the date of its filing in regard to whether or not such notice of appeal was filed within ten (10) calendar days. No notice of appeal shall be filed without the payment of the administrative fee.

10. In addition to all other remedies available pursuant to this ordinance, in the event that a person who has been assessed a fine and administrative fees for the violation of any provision of this ordinance fails to pay such fines and administrative fees within thirty (30) days of their assessment or fails to remove from the parcel of land those things constituting a violation of this ordinance, the Madison County Commission may file suit against the person to collect the unpaid fines and administrative fees and to abate the public nuisance.

11. This ordinance shall take effect on July 1, 2007.

DONE this the 18th day of June, 2007.
